

I INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON “REGIONALISM AND INTEGRATION PROCESSES IN LATIN AMERICA” November 24, 2015

Presentation

The Center for International Relation Studies (CEFIR) and the University of Liège are pleased to invite you to the first international workshop on "Regionalism and Integration Processes in Latin America". The workshop is intended to bring together a selected audience of colleagues active and interested in this field. It will be a one-day event held on November 24, from 2 to 6:30 pm, at the Faculty of Law and Political Science of the University of Liège. The workshop is limited to seven participants. The working language is English. The participation is free of charge.

Scope

The world has gone through an increasing movement toward regionalization. In Latin America, several integration processes took place in the last decade – with differences in scope, size and relevance – as its regional landscape continues to shift, according to the rise of different actors in this now multipolar world. Concomitantly, other institutions transformed their status in order to fit the ongoing change in the international arena.

The workshop aims at the discussions and analyses on the different integration processes in Latin America vis-à-vis the evolution of Latin American regional landscape and the world as a whole. All theoretical and methodological views are welcome.

Publication

The papers submitted to the workshop will go through a careful selection and peer-review process in order to be published in a special issue of the University of Liège's journal Fédéralisme-Régionalisme [<http://popups.ulg.ac.be/1374-3864/>], to be compiled by the Workshop Organization Team. The high quality of the papers is imperative, since it needs to pass the editorial process of the journal. The launch of the special edition is expected for the beginning of 2016.
